School of Law and International Relations

We study International Relations from an integral perspective, incorporating juridical, economic, geopolitical, social, intercultural and negotiations perspectives. This allows future generations of students to work towards the benefit of individuals and nations by developing a global focus which includes the environment, international security, international economies, and human rights.

Focal Point

Our integral and multicultural focus develops leaders who design and manage strategies of cooperation focused on the development of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), civil society groups, governmental and non-governmental organizations. These strategies work towards having a positive impact around the world.

Agreements

- Diplomatic Consulate
- State Human Rights Commission
- National Human Rights Commission
- German Consulate
- Colombian Consulate
- Quintana Roo State Governments
- Benito Juárez Municipality
- PROFEPA
- SEMARNAT

Internships

Starting in third semester, students will take part in professional internships, creating state agendas and projects within consulates and NGO's developing policies to promote knowledge and scope of SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals).

Internship Agreements

Students develop professional experience through consulates, taking full advantage of Cancun as the city with the second highest number of consulates in the country. They also complete internships in human rights at the Consulate House, working with civil society organizations working to support migrants.

The best university life experience

University life is an important part of the integral development of our students, both in and outside of the classroom. It offers space, moments and opportunities to listen, support and create.

Student Relations

Our students share and promote the ideal of leading by example, and their capacity for initiative and commitment reaches its full potential by integrating individual talent into initiatives organized by the Student Societies, the Federation of Student Societies (FESAL) and the Association of Foreign Students Anáhuac (ADEFA).

Sports

We offer more than 20 areas of study as well as elective subjects that enable students to develop their skills in first-class sports facilities. Our students can enjoy sports such as: football, soccer, tennis, basketball, volleyball, archery, golf, diving, paddle-boarding, pilates, sport climbing, crossfit, taekwondo, cheerleading team, jiu jitsu, among others.

Art and Culture

An extensive variety of international-caliber cultural and artistic events and workshops with a focus on wide-ranging development. Workshops on salsa, painting, theater, hip hop, and groups representing dance and music.

Social Commitment

Acción Social Universidad Anáhuac (ASUA) is a student body with volunteer projects that foster the development of genuine awareness based on universal values. It promotes students to take a lead in improving the living conditions of those in need of material, human or spiritual support thus enriching our students' all round development while transforming into true positive-action international leaders.

Campus Ministry

The Campus Ministry offers spiritual care to our students interested in having this service. In addition, they organize and promote different activities and programs which seek to create awareness about the transcendent reality of every person, in the search for the ultimate meaning of one's life, as well as the commitment that we all have with our fellow men, particularly those most in need.
